Thursday, May 5th, 2016 – A Mother's day Race to remember. For the first time in Ontario, two clubs become one. With just over 430 entries at our first race, this weekend could reach that or more with the combining of two clubs. "This is an exciting year for MMRS," shares MMRS Owner John Maguire. "Our customer's deserve upgrades like any business should. With these cross-over races with AMO, the MMRS member gets more for their dollar spent. Since day one MMRS has been all about the families that support us. This new partnership helps us deliver more to the ever growing MMRS followers."
History is in the making with the open door concept between MMRS and AMO. "This is how racing should be done. No longer are you pushed in one direction, you now have options, and that's the goal of AMO and MMRS working together," states AMO Owner Ryan Gauld
